

Painting from Photographs

Instructor Name: Michael Forde

Instructor CC Email: M4dart@gmail.com

The painting surface preferred for this technique is regular illustration board. It can be purchased at Hobby Lobby or Meiningers. See if they can cut it into four pieces for you in Hobby Lobby at the frame shop. There is a cutter at the studio so come early if you need it cut it down.

Supplies

Two 32x40 in. illustration board cut in for 16x20 pieces	$28.00
Full Spectrum watercolor set or acrylic set including white	$15.00 - $ 40.00
Full variety brush set of decent quality	$15.00 - $50.00
One black and one white Prismacolor pencil.	$5.00
Cup for water	free, if brought from home

Total estimated cost $40.00 - $100.00

Please email the instructor with any questions regarding supplies.