

Celebrate National Camera Day with Film Cameras

Instructor Name: Angela Crews

Instructor Email: : acrews@coloradocollege.edu , angela@angelacrewsphotography.com

All items for B&W film and print processing can be found locally at Cameraworks on Academy Blvd., as well as online photo stores such as Freestyle Photo, B&H Photo and Adorama. Cameraworks does offer a student discount on photographic supplies if you let them know you are in a class at Bemis. To find a plastic toy camera, check out Freestyle Photo online. They carry a full range of Holga cameras and some Diana cameras as well. You can generally find Holga cameras on Amazon as well.

Supplies

Manual SLR 35mm camera and lens of choice	$150-$250
Or, Plastic Toy Camera or Vintage/Antique camera*	$40 and up depending on what you choose
B&W Film – Ilford HP5, Ilford FP4, Delta 100 or Delta 400	est. $10/roll and up depending on format
B&W Paper – Ilford MG 8x10 RC Paper	$40 est. for 25 sheet pack
Canned Air and/or Rocket Air Blaster	$14-$20
Ilford Anti-static cloth	$16
Disposable Latex Gloves (no powder) OPTIONAL	$14
3-ring binder for negatives and notebook for notes	$10
Old towel and apron that can get dirty	$0

Total estimated cost $154 - $430* the more paper or film you wish to use, the higher the costs

Please email the instructor with any questions regarding supplies.

* Camera types vary. Plastic toy cameras can be found for $40 and up (Holga/Diana/etc).
 Vintage/antique camera also vary in prices – look for 35mm or 120 (medium) formats and call me with any questions prior to buying if you are not sure what to purchase.

** You will want at least 2-4 rolls of film depending on the format of the camera you have (35mm or medium format/120mm)